

user sees magnifying glass when hovering over these areas. wires are different colors click on top area

back to home

user can click and drag wires to ports if USB ones are already plugged in below, it will not show up here

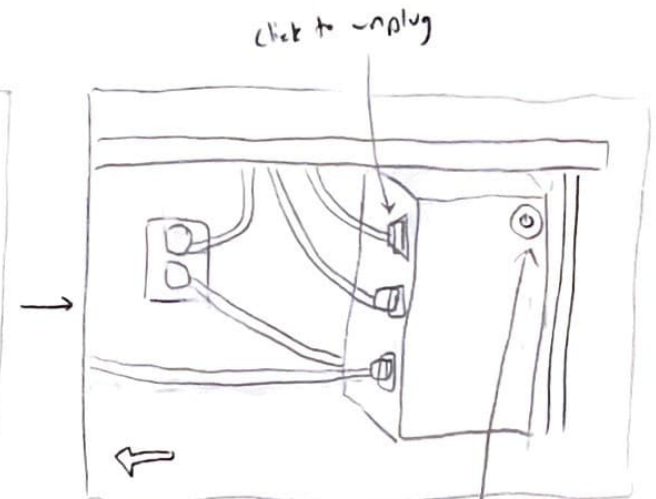

click in bottom area

user can click and drag wires to ports which is successful if type of port matches
 back to home

back to home

correct configuration

click to unplug

correct configuration glows when moved on

refresh

if everything is correct, monitor turns on and user can enter website